

RECRUITMENT OF A JUNIOR EXPERT IN AUDIOVISUAL/INTERNET REGULATION (GERMAN REQUIRED)

We are recruiting a talented individual to work in our Brussels office on a full-time basis on audiovisual/internet regulatory issues.

Your responsibilities will include:

- closely monitoring and reporting on regulatory developments affecting the audiovisual/internet sectors at European Union and national levels
- contributing to Cullen International's regular reports and client research
- building close working relationships with clients and industry experts
- answering enquiries from clients in industry and regulatory authorities
- taking part in studies

You:

- have a university degree (preferably in law or economics), with a strong background and interest in policy developments affecting the internet/audiovisual sectors
- have strong analytical skills, with the ability to work with strict deadlines
- have good writing skills - you write clearly and concisely
- speak clearly and to the point about technical/complex issues
- have good interpersonal skills
- are fluent in English (both written and spoken)
- have a good working knowledge of German
- are hard working, professional and have a potential to work independently and to drive projects

What we offer you in return:

- the opportunity to work at the forefront of regulation as part of one of the best regulatory teams in the industry
- an attractive remuneration package and the freedom of flexible working arrangements
- a rewarding and challenging multi-cultural environment in which to work
- the chance to increase your knowledge in all areas of communications regulation
- a history of corporate stability and continued growth that has created the possibility of long-term careers for our employees
- a real opportunity for personal progress through hard work, training and support

Please send your letter of application before November 20, 2011 by email to:
regulatoryexpert@cullen-international.com

Please send us examples of work you have produced in recent months together with your CV.

Cullen International
Clos Lucien Outers 11-21
1180 Brussels
Belgium
www.cullen-international.com